Conference Introduction

"Our world so desperately needs hope. Values-based Education is bringing this hope, by creating a transformational movement that has the potential to transform education and society, so that we can live in peace and harmony with self, family, society and nature ensuring the sustainability of our planet."

Dr. Neil Hawkes

In India, Value-Based Education is the real need of the hour, as the value system is declining day by day. It is necessary to develop programs for inculcating values in society. It is especially important for today's youth, who are bombarded by new technological devices, information explosions, and violent news from the press and media. To inculcate the value system in their minds and make them value-oriented-powerful leaders, educational institutions are take the initiative to impart value-based spiritual knowledge to this new generation. Imbibing the qualities of good conduct, self-confidence, and high values would help students earn a significant place in society.

LDPS KVM has taken an opportunity to conduct the national conference on education to nourish the future generation. An attempt will be made at this conference to discuss the role of value-based education in the transformation of society. It will elaborately discuss the implications of developing the value based education system.

We believe that a mere desire or aspiration to progress in life is not enough; success should be based on values. And for that, value-based education must be imparted in today's institutions so that the students may emerge as good leaders in their chosen fields.
